

Isaiah 43:1-13

“Fear not, for I have redeemed you”

Isaiah 39:6 ESV

Behold, the days are coming, when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up till this day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left, says the LORD. And some of your own sons, who will come from you, whom you will father, shall be taken away, and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.” Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “There will be peace and security in my days.”

Main Point-

Christians can face anything, because we have been redeemed by God—the only one who can save from death and hell.

Isaiah 41:1-13

1-7 The magnificence of salvation

8-13 The grace of being his witnesses

Isaiah 43:5-7 ESV

- [5] Fear not, for I am with you;
I will bring your offspring from the east,
and from the west I will gather you.
- [6] I will say to the north, Give up,
and to the south, Do not withhold;
bring my sons from afar
and my daughters from the end of the earth,
- [7] everyone who is called by my name,
whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.”

Isaiah 43:1 1–12 ESV

“I, I am the LORD, and besides me there is no savior.

I declared and saved and proclaimed, when there was no strange god among you; and you are my witnesses,” declares the LORD, “and I am God.”

2 Corinthians 4:7–10 ESV

[7] But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us. [8] We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; [9] persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; [10] always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies.
